Constitution

Adopted June 20th 2017

PART I

1. Adoption of the constitution

The association and its property will be administered and managed in accordance with the provisions in Parts 1 and 2 of this constitution.

2. Name

The association's name is The Rowantree Choir hereinafter called 'the choir'

3. Objects

The choir's objects ('the objects') are

- 1) To promote, improve, develop and maintain public education in and appreciation of the art and science of music in all its aspects by the presentation of public concerts and recitals and by such other ways as the Society through its Committee shall determine from time to time.

4. Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of the choir shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - (a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the choir or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the choir.
 - (b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the choir's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (2) None of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a trustee from receiving:
 - (a) a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

5. Benefits and payments to choir trustees and connected persons

- (1) General provisions

No trustee or connected person may:

- (a) buy or receive any goods or services from the choir on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services or any interest in land to the choir;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the choir;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the choir;

unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission ('the Commission'). In this clause, a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- (a) A trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the choir in the capacity of a beneficiary of the choir provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- (b) A trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the choir where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a trustee or connected person may provide the choir with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the choir by the choir trustee or connected person.
- (d) A trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the choir at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) A trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the choir. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) A trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the choir on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only - controls

The choir and its trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 2(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the choir and trustee or connected person supplying the goods ('the supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the choir.
- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the choir to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the choir trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the choir.
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the trustees in the minute book.

- (g) A majority of the trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 5.
- (4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:
 - (a) 'the choir' includes any company in which the choir:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more trustees to the board of the company.
 - (b) 'connected person' includes any person within the definition set out in clause 34 (Interpretation).

6. Dissolution

- (1) If the members resolve to dissolve the choir the trustees will remain in office as trustees and be responsible for winding up the affairs of the choir in accordance with this clause.
- (2) The trustees must collect in all the assets of the choir and must pay or make provision for all the liabilities of the choir.
- (3) The trustees must apply any remaining property or money:
 - (a) directly for the objects;
 - (b) by transfer to any charity or charities for purposes the same as or similar to the choir;
 - (c) in such other manner as the Charity Commission for England and Wales ('the Commission') may approve in writing in advance.
- (4) The members may pass a resolution before or at the same time as the resolution to dissolve the choir specifying the manner in which the trustees are to apply the remaining property or assets of the choir and the trustees must comply with the resolution if it is consistent with paragraphs (a) - (c) inclusive in sub-clause (3) above.
- (5) In no circumstances shall the net assets of the choir be paid to or distributed among the members of the choir (except to a member that is itself a charity).
- (6) The trustees must notify the Commission promptly that the choir has been dissolved. If the trustees are obliged to send the choir's accounts to the Commission for the accounting period which ended before its dissolution, they must send the Commission the choir's final accounts.

 - (a) no amendment may be made that would have the effect of making the choir cease to be a charity at law;
 - (b) no amendment may be made to alter the objects if the change would undermine or work against the previous objects of the choir;
 - (c) no amendment may be made to clause 3 (Objects), 4 (Application of income and property), clause 5 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons), clause 6 (Dissolution) or this clause without the prior consent in writing of the Commission;
